Dawnview PS

14.44 KM away

Public

149 12th Ave, Hanover, ON N4N 2S8, Canada

Our school population is approximately 260 students. The staff is comprised of a principal, office manager, teachers, three educational assistants, and a head custodian with one part-time assistant. Several board employees and those from other agencies such as Speech and Language Pathologists, occupational Therapist, and Physical Therapist, visit the school to assist staff and students with programs. Dawnview Public School is fortunate to have many volunteers from the community who join us to help throughout the school in a variety of ways. This group of caring adults works as a team to provide an excellent opportunity for the students to receive the most productive education possible.

313363 Hwy 6 S., Durham, ON

As we teach Academics at Ethnos Academy we attempt to care for the heart of each student, and in co-operation with parents, are preparing children for life. We provide our students with a biblically based education that develops the mind, nurtures the soul, and shapes the character. We endeavour to work closely with parents to support their responsibility in providing an education for their children. We emphasize the development of the total person: academically, spiritually, physically and socially. The purpose of Ethnos Academy is to support the efforts of Ethnos Canada by providing quality education from a Christian perspective for the children of Ethnos personnel and children of students in Emanate.
